

We would like to help organize institutes and symposia at the Annual Meetings of the American Anthropological Association in the areas of interest to our members, ranging from research institutes to screenings, exhibition, and discussion of visual productions for use in teaching as well as general public information and presentation.

The visual media are growing increasingly powerful not only in our society but in those of many developing countries. Control of the use and distribution of films and television in schools and in nations means power to create culture. We would hope in the Society to provide a forum for discussion of the anthropological politics of symbolic forms, and would expect that our membership might want to present resolutions to the American Anthropological Association on matters about which we are knowledgeable and concerned.

Video Van Project: This tape is one of many short ones that total about 40 hours of tape. They were exclusively shot by children ranging in age from 6 to 19, in a special cultural arts project organized and sponsored by the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation. The project consisted of a '68 Dodge Van equipped with 3 portapak cameras and ½ hour tape decks, 4 monitors, SEG-1 special effects generator, a sound mixer, AV-5000 1 hour tape deck with editing capabilities and a lighting kit. The van as a highly mobile unit, was developed to provide exposure to an artistic media generally denied the socio/economically disadvantaged minority groups in the Los Angeles Inner City. The 10 week pilot program operated largely in these three ethnic minority areas: East Los Angeles, ethnicity: Chicano; Watts, ethnicity: Black; Sho Tokyo, ethnicity: Asian American. The 40 hours of tape can roughly be divided into 3 basic groups: (1) Free play tapes produced by setting up the cameras through the SEG-1 generator and monitors in the van located at a county park, and then turning the camera over to the children for "Play;" (2) Biographical Documentaries: Tapes made by teams of children sent out from the park using ½ hour run porta-pack units to tape what they wished; and (3) Developed Taping: Tapes either in documentary or dramatic forms, using the media as a tool to creatively express concern about themselves, their life styles and/or problems in their community. The tape, Eddie's Love, is one of these. The project director is available for discussion or demonstrations in workshops or symposia in the video area.

2. NORTH AMERICAN HABITATS: THE MOBILE HOME. Producer: David E. Kemp, Ph.D.; Director Editing: Beverly Hill and David E. Kemp; Resources: UC-Davis and Health Science Television. Running Time: 15 minutes. Video Tape: 1 inch helical scan (Amplex). Distributor: David E. Kemp, Univ. of California-Davis Medical TV, Mental Health Services, Sacramento Medical Center, 2315 Stockton Blvd., Sacramento, CA 95814. Not for Sale Now. Rental: Free.

It consists of highly-edited excerpts from 10 (45-60 minute) interviews with inhabitants of an "upper-middle" class mobile home park. The interviews, conducted by a clinical psychologist (who is mostly edited out) were unstructured, and were focused on several issues: (1) How the respondent came to choose his habitat; (2) What his home means to him, especially in terms of day-to-day life style; (3) What he thinks about a mobile-home park as a neighborhood; and (4) most importantly, ascertaining if there is a sense of community in the park.

In a sense this is a call for an organizational meeting to be held at the annual meeting of the Association in Toronto in November, 1972. We would welcome—in fact, we urge you—to write and tell us your feelings about what we have proposed. How do the list of interests correspond with your own? Do you want a Society of Visual Anthropology defined in general as we outlined? What ideas do you have?

If your response seems to warrant the formation of a Society (meeting during the Annual Meeting of the AAA, with dues and a journal), we will set up an organization meeting at the Toronto AAA meeting. You can write to: PIEF, Temple University, South Hall 200, Philadelphia, Penna. 19122. Please let us know your attitudes and thinking about this.

The major purpose of the tape is to reveal the phenomenology of a mobile-home dweller. The tape is based on the assumption that the "real" words and visual appearance of an informant and his habitat carry far more useful information than abstract reports.

3. TRUCKSTOP. Production crew: Charles Lord Jr.; William D. Hurr; Hudson B. Marquez; Curtis Schreier; Douglas D. Michels. Running time: 15 minutes. Video Camera: Sony Portapak. Video Tape: ½" Sony. Distributor: Ant Farm Video, 994 Union St., San Francisco, CA 94133. Sale price: $60.00. Apply for Rental.

We spent three months building the media van and the life support system, now we have been on the road for two months. We are on the road back. We have only one portapak but (on portapak support systems) it has been adequate. At first we developed a style of editing in-process—that is, making judgement on tape we had already shot, and recording over slow parts. In the South and Midwest there were no support systems. Indeed the process was alien to almost everyone. In Syracuse and New York we found editing equipment and changed our style. Now we keep all original tapes in a data bank and make edited composites from this.

Our tapes are a mix of our own bus trip; weird shit along the side of the road; survival mode stuff such as building Yurts, unknown talent and rural American commercial television. We were looking for people who had taken control of their immediate environment, especially older enviro-weirdos.

4. EL GATO Y EL RATON. Credits: Audrey Smith; Alice J. Dunlop; Carolyn Nuanez. Running time: 12 minutes. Sony Videocorder. ½" Video Tape. Distributor: Contact—Rodolfo G. Serrano, The University of New Mexico, College of Education, Dept. of Educational Foundations, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87106. For Sale or Rental, apply.

This tape can best be described as one that attempts to "capture" the games that Mexican American migrant children play on the school grounds. The games that are played on the school grounds as shown in this tape, are those games that Mexican American migrant children play during unstructured class time. Efforts were made to trace the games to Spain and the efforts proved successful.
