

Contents

WHAT MATTERS MOST: A Collection of Concerns		4
The Video Carrot	Jeff Strickler	7
Don't Try to Understand Media – Know Thyself	George Gordon	8
Implications of the New Television for the Open Classroom	John Le Baron	10
The Great Plastic Weekly Video Magazine	Chuck Anderson	12
The Tactics of the Truth	Irving Falk	16
Video in a Psychiatric Context	Bob Behr	17
Aesthetics of the Portapak	Phillip Lopate	18
Three Propositions, Two Frameworks and an Indictment	Kit Laybourne	22
Teaching and Reflecting	Joe Petner and Susan Sherwood	27
An Attempt at Video Research	Mitch Ackerman	28
Action for Children's Television	Maggi Cowlan	30
Invitation to a Video Forum	Anne Page	31
THINGS TO DO WITH KIDS: A Portfolio of Activities		33
Introductory Video Exercises	Quincy Bent	35
Portraits	Kit Laybourne	38
Theater Gaming	Gerry Laybourne	39
Music, Movement and Video	Peter Haratonik	40
6:00 News	Bruce Cost	41
Neighborhood Documentary	Larry Goldin	42
Video Animation	Chuck Anderson	43
In-depth Interviews	Kit Laybourne	43
Creative Electrography	Aldo Tambellini	44
Reading: Experiences Through Video	Peter Haratonik	45
Resources That Will Help		45
WHAT'S DOING: Some Video Programs Here and There		46
The Evolution of a Non-Program	Chuck Anderson	48
Video in a Therapeutic Community	Bruce Cost	50
A New Approach in Higher Education	Jane Garmey and Jeff Bush	51
Student-Centered ETV Broadcasting	Ellen Miles	52
Video for Migrant Children	David Jonassen	54
Project TV: Video as a Second Language	Jim Kearney	55
Video Catalyst	Peter Haratonik	56
Inner-City Video	Jon Dunn	60
Kids Today: A Cable Project	Paul Rabin and Myles Halsband	61
Creating an Elementary School Video Environment	Jeff Strickler	63
Video and the Public Library	Walter Dale	64
CONTRIBUTORS		67