PEOPLE'S VIDEO THEATRE

PEOPLE'S VIDEO THEATRE: an alternative news media, has this objective:
1) to become a model for other community video theatre,
2) to provide the people of the community a medium for exposing their goods, services, ideas,
3) to introduce and develop video journalists,
4) to provide a public video studio which can be used by acting groups, dancers, therapists, political groups, etc.,
5) to stimulate community dialogues through the Live-Forum.
6) to establish a video library for use by videojournalists.

Our weekly shows will touch on local, neighborhood, city, national and news and include features on cultural and scientific activities.
The Live-Forum will expose and involve our audience in controversial issues inviting them to express their views on tape. Contact us at (212) 691-0254.

ANT FARM

ANT FARM designs and constructs inflatables, mostly for people who have some type of themselves and are putting together a tape on how to do your own inflatables.

RaIndancE Corporation

RaiNdanCEx CorporatioN is setting up a video information network which will be as highly accessible as possible—Alternate Television: two-way, interactive, decentralized.

We believe the culture needs new information structures, new ways for information to move and a new medium for carrying them. We are working on such a medium which could be copied to your systems...

By the twenty-ninth of May we shall have two to three tapes for the beginning of an exchange service with London. We need you, because we want to know you...

People's Video Theatre, 259 East Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10002

STUDENTS

STUDENTS are the State University of New York in Binghamton are receiving expense money to document their environments with portable VT cameras. The program is for less than a half-year old and will expand to a university network in the fall. Tapes produced include anti-war demonstrations in Washington and Buffalo, and a portrait of two tape scene using 1/2 inch equipment. It seems we should be organizing a high school video project for the Portola Institute.
