(continued from front inside cover)

This is the second issue of Radical Software not distributed by us personally. (The first issue was #5.) Please let us know if you have difficulty in getting Radical Software or if our service or that of our publisher is not satisfactory.

The Raindance Foundation, which originally published Radical Software, is a non-profit corporation dedicated to research, development and innovative implementation in communications media. Contributions are appreciated and tax deductible.

Address all Radical Software subscription, circulation, and distribution correspondence to Gordon and Breach Science Publishers, Suite 1304, 440 Park Ave. South, N.Y.C., N.Y. 10016.

Address all Radical Software editorial, correspondence, as well as correspondence to Raindance Foundation, to P.O.B. 135 Ruby, N.Y. 12475.

Radical Software Forthcoming Issues ot

VIDEO BALL video group of Antioch/Baltimore will focus on the use of media (especially vtr) as an instrument of individual, institutional, and social change and/or Phil Gietzen in San Francisco is organizing growth. They would like you to send them an issue which will "trace the historical information pertaining to group interac-aspect of kinetic visuals using work by tions, community video (action projects, oral history), CATV program designs and son (who were into light shows behind more. formats, specialized playback environments, internal institutional uses, interactive experiments, education and training fluenced local filmmakers in their early designs, economic support bases (alternatives to and development of), vtr and mental health. If you won't, can't or would video, especially Zagone and Belson . . . together an issue focusing on local originatapes, graphics, photos, illustrations or telephone person-to-person to Alan Kaplan or and send you a transcript to edit for "ok." GET INFORMATION TO THEM BEFORE NOVEMBER 25. Write to Videoball, Antioch Videolab, 525 St. Paul Place, Bal-tarium . . . to Teske . . . Star Map . . . light timore, Md. 21202.

tecture, tv generated gadgets, interviews TV, Film . . . Dr. Zettle . . . to CATV . . with Dennis James and a tv repairman, an Johnny Video . . . to equipment . . in-depth view of the non-real world of science museum . . . atomic bomb sports (wrestling and roller derby), and Oppenheimer on cosmic evolution lecmore . . .

Jacobs and Belson, Zagone and Ray Andermusic) and move through the 65-68 drug trip concert light show which greatly inwork . . . DeWitt, Bartlett, Myers' collec-Tom Johnson, Antioch/Baltimore, 301-752- the groundwork but missed a lot of the real them at POB 190, Downsville, N.Y. 13755. 3656. They will write up the information things because he essentially was just in town to interview and did not really get into the scene. We go from Vortex . . . Belson . . . Zagone . . . Anderson . . . Planeshow . . . films . . . loops . . . video cinema graphics . . . to feedback . . . direct See Steve Duplantier of Video Rangers, from the outside), tv accessories and archi-thesizer group) . . . State College Radio, future issue. ures . . . holography . . . Decker (the recording found on the elevator) . . ."

Mike Goldberg in Vancouver and Merrily Pascal in Montreal will be cooperating on a Canadian issue which will contain information about an international tape distribution system, an international directory, Canadian developments in video, editing techniques, a portapak manual . . . and tion, Belson, trying all the time to tie in Dean and Dudley Evenson will be putting rather not write, send audio tapes, video put it all in a cause and effect perspective tion community experiments and using . . . rounding it out with articles and info video to collect data about the environabout local video folks. Youngblood laid mental crisis. Send pertinent information to

Billy Adler, John Margolies, Van Schley, video experimentation . . . invention in SF Bloomington, Indiana in VIDEO DIRECTOand Eileen Fegalove of GREAT BALLS OF of tv by Farnsworth . . . to Beeson (Na- RY within this issue for appeal for informa-FIRE will take an alternate look at commer-tional Sex and Drugs) and Video Free tion for a future Radical Software on genercial television: tv stars at home (as taken America . . . to Different Fur (Moog syn- al systems theory. . . . This is a tentative

> Other announcements of future issues will appear in forthcoming issues.

