GAME SHOWS

Dick Enberg  Art James  Bob Eubanks

Art Fleming  Jim Lange  Jack Barry

Monty Hall  Peter Marshall  Bob Barker
JOKER'S WILD

Topics: Animals
Femme Fatales
Shakespeare
Movie Monsters
Chess

Q: Shakespeare described this mischievous and merry fellow as "A wanderer of the night." Name this fairy type character who appears in A Midsummer Night's Dream.
A: Puck.
Q: This aquatic mammal derives its name from the Greek words meaning "river horse." What is it?
A: Hippopotomas.
Q: James Arness played a monster frozen in ice in what famous motion picture?
A: The Thing.
Q: In chess this piece is restricted to diagonal moves only. Name it.
A: The bishop.
Q: The latest craze in movie monsters has to do with everyday creatures around us. In keeping with this, what were Ben and Socrates?
A: Rats.
Q: She is known as the "Beauty whose face launched a thousand ships." Who is she?
A: Helen of Troy.

SALE OF THE CENTURY

Q: Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit and were expelled as punishment. Where were they expelled from?
A: The Garden of Eden.
Q: Pigs are kept in a sty. Where are chickens kept?
A: In a coop.
Q: On a bowling lane, is the distance from the foul line to the head pin closer to 20, 60, or 100 feet?
A: 60 feet.
Q: Yamamoto was a Japanese admiral who masterminded a terrible attack. What did he decide to attack?
A: Pearl Harbor.
Q: Guatamala City, the capital of Guatamala is the largest city in Central America. Spell Guatamala.
Q: Is mustard prepared from a grain, a berry, or a seed?
A: A seed.
Q: In what ocean would you find the Tonga, Gilbert and Solomon Islands?
A: The Pacific.
Q: If the nations of the world were listed alphabetically, the last one would be the Central African nation whose chief river is Zambezi. What is it?
A: Zambia.

GAMBIT

Q: True or false. The United Nations is located in Washington, D.C.
A: False.
Q: Peter Graves is the star of what television series?
A: Mission Impossible.
Q: Your neighbor has a toy poodle, you have a miniature. Which one is smaller?
A: The toy.
Q: True or false. Candice Bergren is the daughter of Edgar Bergren.
A: True.
Q: This river is immortalized by Johann Strauss in a waltz composition. Is it the Volga or the Danube?
A: The Danube.
Q: A philosopher who collaborated on a book called Das Capital is?
A: Karl Marx.
Q: A Walt Disney feature cartoon concerns itself with 101 dogs. What are these dogs? Are they poodles, dalmations, or daschunds?
A: Dalmations.
Q: In the movie The African Queen, what was the name of the boat used by Humphrey Bogart and Katherine Hepburn? Was it the "Burma Bell," the "River Fox," or the "African Queen."
A: The "African Queen."

SPORTS CHALLENGE

Q: Jesse Owens set a world record in the broad jump in 1934. It was broken 24 years later by whom?
A: Ralph Boston.
Q: Bill Sharman, the Laker's coach, in 1971 won an ABA Championship with what team?
A: The Utah Stars.
Q: Who holds the record for eight consecutive home-runs in eight consecutive games?
A: Dale Long.

THE PARENT GAME

Q: Dad and his attractive 18-year-old daughter Vanessa, who is also his secretary, are going on a business trip together. The problem is, where does Vanessa sleep? Does Vanessa sleep—
A: Dad's room.
In her own private room.
It makes no difference.
At home—don't take her along.
A: There is no reason not to take Vanessa along but it does make a difference where she sleeps. There are reputations to think of. Don't hesitate, get her her own room.
JEOPARDY

Q: It is impossible to sneeze with them open.
A: What are your eyes?

Q: This disease is most often carried by skunks, bats, and foxes.
A: What is rabies?

Q: Electrical unit or a Los Angeles neighborhood.
A: What is watts?

Q: It is defined as the society who carries their keys outside of their pockets.
A: What is Phi Beta Kappa?

Q: He wrote an article on conjuring for the Britannica in 1926.
A: Who is Houdini?

Q: From the Polish “nudney,” a word that means stupid person.
A: What is “nudnick”?

Q: Kid game that originally used stones or knuckle bones, and not the metal pieces of today.
A: What is jacks?

HOLLYWOOD SQUARES

Q: True or false. Benjamin Franklin invented the swivel chair.
A: False. It was Thomas Jefferson.

Q: In the Longfellow poem, what kind of tree was the blacksmith standing under?
A: Chestnut.

Q: According to Emily Post, if you are attending a party, should you be pretending to have a good time even if you are not?
A: Yes.

Q: According to Playboy, if a man and a woman are sharing a bicycle built for two, who should get on first?
A: The man.

Q: This beloved character is known as “Popolino” in Italy. What is he known as in the United States?
A: Mickey Mouse.

Q: True or false. Thomas Jefferson invented the rocking chair.
A: False. It was Benjamin Franklin.

Q: What makes humming birds hum?
A: The rapid wing oscillation.

Q: How many naps does the average earthworm take every hour?
A: Four.

RUNAROUND

Q: How many countries touch the borders of the United States? Are there one, two, or three?
A: Two.

Q: How many Great Lakes are there?
A: Five.

(After viewing an animal named Boomerang . . .)

Q: What kind of animal do you think Boomerang is? A gorilla, an orangutan, or a baboon?
A: An orangutan.

WHO, WHAT, OR WHERE GAME

Topic: Current Films

Q: A current film concerning a Mississippi farmhand and a woman who enters his life based on a short story by William Faulkner. One word title. (What)
A: Tomorrow.

Q: One current animated film about the adventures of a cat, the distinction being an X-rated cartoon. (Who)
A: Fritz the Cat.

Topic: United Kingdom

Q: When Anthony Armstrong-Jones was elevated to the Peerage, he chose a name of the highest mountain in Wales as part of his royal title. What is the name of this mountain? (What)
A: Mt. Snowdon.

Q: Balmoral Castle is the only one of Queen Elizabeth’s residences that is not located in England. Which United Kingdom is it located in? (Where)
A: Scotland.

THREE ON A MATCH

Topic: The Family Tree

Q: If you were a member of the famous Foy family, you would have been a vaudeville star?
A: True.

Q: If you were a member of the Bourbon family, your ancestors would have been famous Italian violinists?
A: False.

Topic: The Other Woman

Q: In addition to Elizabeth Taylor, the other woman who won an Oscar for Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf was Sandy Dennis.
A: True.

Q: In addition to Ruby Keeler, the female film veteran in the Broadway revival of No No Nanette is Patsy Kelly.
A: True.